DECISIONS IN FORMAL PROCEEDINGS

SOURCE: 70 FR 11820, Mar. 9, 2005, unless otherwise noted.

§4.240 Decision of the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge and notice thereof.

(a) The administrative law judge or Indian probate judge must decide the issues of fact and law involved in any formal proceedings and must incorporate the following in his or her decision:

(1) In all cases, the names, identifying numbers as assigned by BIA, birth dates, relationships to the decedent, and shares of heirs, with citations to the law of descent and distribution in accordance with which the decision is made, or the fact that the decedent died leaving no legal heirs;

(2) In testate cases, approval or disapproval of the will with construction of its provisions, and the names, identifying numbers as assigned by BIA, and relationships to the testator of all beneficiaries and a description of the property which each is to receive;

(3) Allowance or disallowance of claims against the estate;

(4) Whether heirs or beneficiaries are non-Indian, exclusively alien Indians, or Indians whose property is not subject to Federal supervision; and

(5) A determination of any rights of dower, curtesy, or homestead that may constitute a burden upon the interest of the heirs.

(b) When the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge issues a decision, he or she must:

(1) Issue a notice of the decision to all parties who have or claim any interest in the estate; and

(2) Must mail a copy of the notice, together with a copy of the decision, to the Superintendent and to each interested party simultaneously.

(c) The decision will not become final and no distribution may be made thereunder until the expiration of the 60 days allowed for the filing of a petition for rehearing by aggrieved parties as provided in §4.241.

§4.241 Rehearing.

(a) Any person aggrieved by the decision of the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge may, within 60 days after the date on which notice of the decision is mailed to the interested parties, file with the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge a written petition for rehearing.

(1) The petition must:

(i) Be under oath; and

(ii) State specifically and concisely the grounds on which it is based.

(2) If the petition is based on newly-discovered evidence, it must:

(i) Be accompanied by affidavits or declarations of witnesses stating fully what the new testimony is to be; and

(ii) State justifiable reasons for the failure to discover and present that evidence, tendered as new, at the formal hearings held before the issuance of the decision.

(b) The administrative law judge or Indian probate judge, upon receiving a petition for rehearing, must promptly forward a copy to the Superintendent. The Superintendent must not initiate payment of claims or distribute the estate while such petition is pending, unless otherwise directed by the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge.

(c) If proper grounds are not shown, or if the petition is not filed within the time prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section, the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge will:

(1) Issue an order denying the petition and setting forth his or her reasons therefor; and

(2) Furnish copies of the order to the petitioner, the Superintendent, and the interested parties.

(d) If the petition appears to show merit, the administrative law judge or Indian probate judge must:

(1) Cause copies of the petition and supporting papers to be served on those persons whose interest in the estate might be adversely affected by the granting of the petition;

(2) Allow all persons served a reasonable, specified time in which to submit answers or legal briefs in opposition to the petition; and

(3) Reconsider, with or without a hearing as he or she may determine, the issues raised in the petition; he or
